- The Company needs to do so to protect their rights.

The Company endeavours to take all reasonable steps to keep secure any information which they hold about an individual, and to keep this information accurate and up to date. If at any time, an individual discovers that information gathered about them is incorrect, they may contact the Company to have the information corrected.

The Company recognises the importance of protecting the privacy of information collected about individuals, information that is capable of identifying an individual (personal information).

10. Updating Client's Information

The Client shall inform the Company regarding any changes of his/her personal data. Additionally, the Client shall inform the Company if he/she wishes to delete personal information that the Company holds about him/her. All requests regarding personal data shall be sent by the Client via email at support@fxgt.com. We will change or delete Client's personal information in accordance with his/her instructions, except to the extent where the Company is required to hold Client's personal information for regulatory or legal purposes, to provide him/her with the services that he/she has requested or to maintain adequate business records. In any case, the Company may keep any aggregated or anonymised information for the purposes described in this Protection of Personal Information Policy, indefinitely.

11. Client's Rights, Choice and Opt-out

By visiting the Company's Website, the Client is not obligated to provide the Company with any of the personal data. However, without providing the information requested during the Online Registration Process, the Company may not be able to open an account for the Client, or to provide the Client with any other services, information or assistance or to evaluate the appropriateness of the service the Client is requesting.

During the Online Registration Process with the Company, as a Client, you will be given the option to opt-out of subscribing to the following additional services:

- Marketing services, which provides you with information regarding the products and services offered by the Company or its partners;
- Newsletters
- SMS (text) messages (if applicable);

- Other electronic communications.

If the Client wishes not to receive the above-mentioned communications but he/she has requested to receive such information during the Online Registration Process, the Client may opt-out of receiving them by following the instructions included in each communication.

12. Amendments to Policy

The Company may change and update the terms of this Privacy Policy from time to time. All amended terms shall be effective five (5) calendar days after their initial posting on the Company's Website, or as of the first time that the Client access and or uses Online Trading Facility after such amendments were made, whichever is sooner, unless the Company amends the Privacy Policy to comply with legal or regulatory requirements. In the latter cases, the amendments will become effective as required, or ordered.
