- 9.5. The Company may cancel the revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-assignable, non-sub-licensable right to use the Trademarks at any time, at its absolute discretion and without the need to provide any reasons for such cancellation.
- 9.6. Upon termination of the present Agreement, the Partner shall cease from using the trademark of the Company in relation to any service or other use whatsoever.
- 9.7. The Clients introduced by the Partner will be legally contracted with the Company and they will be viewed as being the exclusive intellectual property of the Company, even after the termination of this Agreement. The Company shall be the sole and exclusive owner of the database of names and contact information of all Clients and any other data, including any non-personal information. If in the Company's opinion the Partner either tries to or does make contact with a Client without the Company's prior written approval, the Company shall be entitled to immediately terminate this Agreement and to withhold all commissions owed to the Partner at such time. Further, in the event that the Partner was provided by the Company with written approval to contact or correspond with a client, and thereafter the Company deems that such contact or correspondence is against the interests of Company, the Company shall have the right to revoke the approval previously granted, to terminate this Agreement and to withhold all commissions owing to the Partner at such time. The Partner further agrees to grant the Company access to information reasonably requested by the Company to assess compliance with this clause which may include information relating to the Partner's website traffic.
- 9.8. The Partner shall not, directly or indirectly:
- a) Register or use domains, subdomains, keywords, search terms or other identifiers containing the Company's and/or its Affiliated Entities trademark(s) (a part of the Company's name), the Company's trade names, the Company's name or any words or depictions confoundedly similar to any of the aforementioned in any language or form without the Company's prior written consent;
 - b) Include a similar domain name or any part thereof, or similar variations, translations or misspellings, in the meta tags of any web site code. This includes the meta title, meta keywords or meta description;
 - c) Purchase a similar domain name or any part thereof, or any variations, translations or misspellings thereof, for use in text links, banner ads, pop-up ads or any other type of ad that could be associated with a keyword campaign;
 - d) Use false or misleading advertising and/or promotions or in general false and/or fraudulent methods for attracting Prospective Clients online, launching the search

- engine and leading the search engine users astray, including, but not limited to the use of the Company's website URL with a Partner Link in the contextual advertising systems, knowingly falsely redirecting users to a different website on the Internet;
- e) Publish any marketing and/or promotional material on websites which contain or have links which redirect to websites that violate the rules of law, ethics, and morality;
 - f) Publish advertisements with incorrect and/or misleading information about the services offered or with omissions to the non-disclosure provisions of the risks to the Prospective Client.
 - g) Use malicious software with pop-up advertisements or advertisement-like mailings to email addresses without consent to receive said mailings;
 - h) Purchase and/or use of trademarks and or tradenames which include the word "FXGT.com" in any language;

10. CONFIDENTIALITY

10.1. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, or as the Company may otherwise consent to in writing, both parties will keep confidential and not disclose, or make any use of, at any time, either during or subsequent to the Partner's relationship with the Company, any trade secrets, formulas, methods, techniques, confidential information, computations, knowledge, data or other information of the Company or the Partner relating to software products, trading platforms, trade routing systems, the Company counterparties or the Partner, processes, know-how, marketing, merchandising, selling ideas, selling concepts or other confidential information, forecasts, marketing plans, strategies, pricing strategies, computer programs, copyrightable materials, finances or other subject matter pertaining to both parties business, or any of its customers, consultants, suppliers or affiliates, which the Partner may produce, use, view or otherwise acquire during its relationship with the Company.

10.2. The Partner acknowledges and agrees that any Confidential Information is given to the Counterparty in confidence, solely to permit the Partner to fulfil its obligations to the Company under this Agreement, and that such information derives actual or potential economic value by virtue of its confidentiality and nondisclosure to the public or other persons who could obtain economic value from their disclosure or use. The Partner shall not, under any circumstances, deliver, reproduce or allow any Confidential Information, or any documentation relating thereto, to be delivered to, or used by, any person or entity whatsoever without specific written consent.

10.3. The Company is the exclusive owner to all of the Company's Intellectual Property and the Partner will not challenge or dispute the Company's ownership of the Company Intellectual Property. The Partner will not do anything or omit to do anything which could detrimentally affect the ownership of the Company's Intellectual Property.

10.4. In the event of the termination of the Partner's status, the Partner shall cease using confidential information which has become known to him or her through the performance of this Agreement and shall return or destroy all such documents or information.

10.5. The rights granted by this section of the Agreement will be in accordance to the Company's Privacy Policy as displayed on the Website and in line with any applicable legislation and/or regulation.

11. TERM AND TERMINATION

11.1. This Agreement will take effect upon its execution by both parties on the date stipulate at the end of the Agreement (hereinafter "the Term") and shall continue until terminated in accordance with the terms hereof.

11.2. The Company may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without cause, by giving the Partner 5 days prior written notice by email, except in case where an immediate notice is required to be provided by applicable or if Partner has violated any of the following terms of this Agreement, in which case termination will be effective immediately.

11.3. The Company at its sole discretion may put restrictions and/or immediately terminate the operation of the Partner Accounts and/or any Client's account registered under the Partner and/or to disconnect such account(s) from the Partner(s) and annul any commissions previously earned for any of the following reasons:

- a) If there is any suspicion that the Partner is involved in any illegal/fraudulent transactions;
- b) If there is a suspicion that the Partner or Client violates any of the conditions of this Agreement or any term of the Operative Agreements between the Company and the Partner and/or Partner as a Client and/or Clients registered under the Partner or any other documents concluded between the Partner as a Client or as a Partner with the Company;
- c) The Partner is convicted of a crime or, serious violation of law that bears on their honesty and integrity;
- d) The Company determines that the Partner becomes the subject of a petition in bankruptcy or any other proceeding relating to insolvency, receivership, liquidation or assignment for the benefit of creditors;
- e) The Company determines, in its sole discretion, that the Partner or prospective clients has committed acts that are inconsistent with the fair, just and equitable principles of trade, the Partner or Clients are non-responsive to the Company requests and the Partner and/or any of the Clients registered under the Partner are using practices which are considered as market abuse practices;

- f) If the Company has cause to believe that the Partner is not putting enough effort into promoting the Company's services and/or his/her performance does not meet the expectations of the Company.
- g) Due to force-majeure circumstances;
- h) Due to regulatory restrictions;
- i) By mutual written agreement of both parties;

11.4. In the event that the Partner is also a Client of the Company and any of the aforementioned events occur then the Company may also terminate with immediate effect the Client Agreement between the Company and the Partner as a Client.

11.5. Where termination of the Agreement takes place for any other reason except the reasons mentioned in section 11, the Company shall pay commission for all Prospective Clients who became Qualified before the termination date. The Partner shall not be entitled to receive any Commission from any Potential Clients generated after the effective termination date.

11.6. Termination of the Partner's status and/or Agreement shall not preclude in any way the Company from subsequently entering into contractual relationships with the Prospective Clients introduced by the Partner.

11.7. In case of termination of this Agreement, the Partner will not be allowed to use the Company's name, tradename, brand name, promotional material and/or any other material prepared and belong to the Company.

11.8. Upon termination of the Agreement, the Partner is obliged to return to the Company the promotional marketing material, giveaways and/or the Partner shall withdraw such Promotional Material upon termination of the said Agreement.

11.9. Termination of this Agreement shall have the effect of termination of the compensation arrangement as set out hereto with immediate effect. Any such termination shall not affect any existing legal rights and obligations under this Agreement which have arisen prior to termination.

12. NOTICES

12.1. Unless the contrary is specifically provided in this Agreement, any Written Notice under this Agreement may be made or given by any of the following means:

- a) Email and/or any other means of communication as decided by the Company in its sole discretion;
- b) Published on the Company's Website or within the Company's Partner Portal.

The Partner warrants herein that all contact information disclosed to the Company or the Company in accordance with this Agreement shall be true, correct and accurate. Any attempt by the Company to contact the Partner unsuccessfully due to incorrect

12.2. communication data provided (e.g. postal address, email address or fax numbers) by the Partner, shall result to the immediate suspension and/or termination of the Agreement.

12.3. Any such Written Notice shall be deemed to have been served:

- a) if sent by email, within one hour after emailing it on business hours;
- b) if posted on the Company's Website or within the Company's Partner Portal, within one hour after it has been posted.

12.4. For the purposes of this clause, "business hours" mean between 9:00 and 17:00 GMT+3 on a Business Day (Monday - Friday).

13. INDEMNITY AND LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

13.1. The Company shall not be liable to the Partner with respect to any subject matter of this Agreement under any contract, negligence, tort, strict liability, or other legal or equitable principle for any indirect, incidental, consequential, special, general, exemplary damages, proceedings, costs, damages, expenses (including legal fees), willful default, fraud or breach of its obligation under this Agreement (including without limitation, loss of revenue or goodwill, or anticipated profits or lost business) even if the Company have been advised of the possibility of such damages and the Company may deduct any amount to indemnify the Company and/or its affiliated entities from any outstanding Partner Commission. Further, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this agreement, in no event shall the Company's cumulative liability to the Partner arising out of or related to this agreement, whether based in contract, negligence, strict liability, tort or other legal or equitable theory, exceed the total commission fees paid to the Partner under this Agreement.

13.2. The Company makes no express or implied representations or warranties regarding the Company's Services and Website or the products or services provided therein, any implied warranties of the Company ability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement are expressly disclaimed and excluded. In addition, the Company make no representation that the operation of the Company's Website shall be uninterrupted or error free, and we shall not be liable for the consequences of any interruptions or errors.

13.3. The Partner hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Company, their Affiliated Entities and, directors, officers, employees, agents, shareholders, members, and other owners, against any and all claims, actions, demands, liabilities, losses, damages, judgments, settlements, costs, and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) (any or all of the foregoing hereinafter referred to as “Losses”) insofar as such Losses (or actions in respect thereof) arise out of the breach of the Terms and Conditions of the present Agreement and/or any Operational Agreements and/or are based on any claim of:

- a) the Company’s use of the Partner trademarks infringes on any trademark, trade name, brand name, service mark, copyright, license, intellectual property, or other proprietary right of any third party;
- b) any misrepresentation of a representation or warranty or breach of a covenant and agreement made by the Partner herein; or
- c) any claim related to the Partner’s site, including, without limitation, content therein not attributable to the Company.

13.4. Upon notice from the Company, the Partner will promptly pay to the Company any amount owed to the Company under this paragraph. If the Partner fails to make such payment, the Company, by action of an officer, will be entitled to collect any such amount by any available means, including but not be limited to charging any proprietary account of the Partner or offsetting any amount owed to the Partner by the Company. The Company is authorized to transfer, use, apply, sell, re-hypothecate or draw upon, as the case may be, any of the funds, securities or property in any proprietary account of the Partner whenever the Company deems it necessary to pay or satisfy amounts owed to it under this Agreement or any other agreement with the Partner. Further, the Company is authorized to withhold all commissions earned and payable to the Partner to the extent of any deficits in any and all accounts that the Partner has introduced to the Company. The rights described in this paragraph are in addition to all other rights and remedies available to the Company under this Agreement.

13.5. The Affiliate further agrees that, if any person or entity has instituted a claim, suit, action, arbitration or other proceeding against the Company and/or any Affiliated Entities, or threatened to do so, or the Company, in its reasonable judgment, believes may be instituted or threatened, which proceeding reasonably could expose the Company and/or any other Affiliated Entities to any potential liability, loss, cost, or expense which is the obligation of the Partner under this Agreement, the Company is authorized to withhold an amount equal to the amount of any such claim from any amounts owed to the Partner or from any other funds, securities or other property owned by the Partner on deposit with the Company for any purpose (including, without limitation, funds, securities or other property in any proprietary account of the Partner) until such has been fully resolved to the satisfaction of the Company. However, in the event that the intends to withhold the amount of any potential liability, loss, cost or expense as set forth above, the Company will notify the Partner of the amount to be withheld and the nature of the claim, and the Partner may participate in defense of the claim through counsel chosen by it at its own expense.

14. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement, together with any documents, appendices, schedules referred to in it, constitutes the whole agreement between the Parties relating to its subject matter and

- 14.1. supersedes any prior drafts, agreements, undertakings, representations, warranties and arrangements of any nature, whether in writing or oral, relating to such subject matter.

15. SEVERABILITY

- 15.1. Should any part of this Agreement be held by any Court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable or illegal or contravene any rule, regulation or by law or any regulator, that part shall be deemed to have been excluded from this Agreement from the beginning, and this Agreement shall be interpreted and enforced as though the provision had never been included and the legality or enforceability of the remaining provisions of the Agreement or the legality, validity or enforceability of this provision in accordance with the law and/or regulation of any other jurisdiction, shall not be affected.

16. ASSIGNMENT

- 16.1. The Company may at any time assign to a third party any or all of its rights, benefits or obligations under this Agreement or the performance of the entire Agreement subject to providing at least five (5) Business Days prior written notice to the Partner. This may be done, without limitation, in the event of merger or acquisition of the Company with a third party, reorganization of the Company, upcoming winding up of the Company, or sale or transfer of all or part of the business or the assets of the Company to a third party. It is agreed and understood that in the event of transfer, assignment or novation as described in the present paragraph, the Company shall have the right to disclose and/or transfer all Partner related information (including without limitation personal data, recording, correspondence, due diligence and identification documents, files and records etc) transfer the Partner Account and any money maintained in such Partner Account.

- 16.2. The Partner may not transfer, assign, charge, novate or otherwise transfer or purport to do so the Partner's rights or obligations under the Agreement without prior written consent of the Company and the Clients that are being transferred to the third party.

17. WAIVER

- 17.1. No failure to exercise, nor any delay in the exercise, by either party to this Agreement of any right, power, privilege or remedy under this Agreement or any applicable law shall impair, or operate as a waiver by the Company of such right, power, privilege or remedy.

18. GOVERNING LAW

18.1. This Agreement shall be governed by the Laws of the Republic of Seychelles without giving effect to its conflict of Law principles. The Partner hereby irrevocably agrees that the Courts of the Republic of Seychelles shall have exclusive jurisdiction and accordingly submits to the jurisdiction of the Courts in relation to any matter arising in connection with this Agreement (including regarding its existence). If any provision of this Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, such provision shall be construed, as nearly as possible, to reflect the original provision and the other provisions remain in full force and effect.

19. MISCELLANEOUS

19.1. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to or shall be deemed to establish any partnership or agency or franchise or sales representative or joint venture between the Company and the Partner, constitute either the Company or the Partner an agent of each other or of any other third party, nor authorize the Partner to make or enter into any commitments and/or create any liability for and on behalf of the Company.

19.2. In the event that a situation arises that is not covered under this Agreement, the Company shall resolve the matter on the basis of good faith and fairness and, where appropriate, by taking such action as is consistent with market practice.

Appendix A

AFFILIATES' MARKETING GUIDELINES

Marketing within compliance standards protects your clients, your business and the Company. Informing clients of the risks involved in the financial investments market, helps to insulate your business and the Company from liability due to a loss in these volatile markets.

The following guidelines will assist on the proper creation and distribution of your marketing materials to the public.

DOs

- Material shall be at all times fair, clear and accurate.
- Content shall be sufficient and presented in a way that is likely to be understood by the average consumer to whom it is addressed.
- Use of appropriate Risk Disclaimers (please see below)
- If you are using past results always mention "Past performance is not an indication for future results".
- Present opportunities and risks in a balanced manner.

DONTs

- NOT to provide misleading information
- NOT to display unrealistic expectations
(for example: "Turn 10.000 to 40.000" OR "Trading is simple and easy" are not allowed)
- NOT to emphasize on profits and benefits and/or guarantee or promise profits or guarantee against losses
- NOT contain absolute statements
(for example statements like: "Trade with the biggest company" or Trading will make you rich")
- NOT disguise, diminish or obscure important items, statements or warnings
- NOT "glamorize" trading by using pictures of excessive wealth or money
- NOT make promises that cannot be backed up with the appropriate supporting evidence
- AVOID statements of opinion (IF opinion statements are used, always use "This is not an investment advice")

EXAMPLES

A. Reference to wealth/profits

DO - Learn to trade successfully

DON'T - Learn how to make 5000USD per day

B. Trade Advice

DO - Trade gold, the price is moving

DON'T - Buy gold today, the price is moving

C. General references

DO - use "easy" in relation to the platform usage and tools of the Company

DON'T - use "easy" or "simple" in relation to trading

DO - use "security" if you are referring to the IT systems of the Company or banking solutions

DON'T - use "secure trading" or the "ability to trade safely"

RISK DISCLAIMERS

Marketing material must include adequate and appropriate Risk Disclaimers depending on the reference made and marketing material presented.
