2. General Disclaimer on Investment Research

The information and content in the Company's communications, technical analysis reports, educational material and generally information contained in the Company's Website which is produced by employees and/or third parties and/or associated companies are provided only for informational and marketing purposes without considering the financial circumstances, particular needs, or personal investment objectives of any particular person. No such information should constitute a financial, investment, tax or trading advice or recommendation nor an invitation or solicitation to acquire any financial instruments and/or be involved in any financial transaction.

The Company and its affiliates, agents, directors, officers or employees are not liable for any damages that may be caused by individual comments or statements of any employee or third party and assume no liability with respect to the completeness and correctness of the content and/or material and/or information presented.

Although the Company does its very best to provide the best quality service at all times, it shall not be held liable for the accuracy of the information, content, or any other related matter nor does not guarantee the accuracy or completeness of any information, analysis, forecast or similar, provided by any employee or third party or associated companies. The client must be aware of the risks and be willing to accept them in order to invest. No representation is being made that any account will or is likely to achieve profits or losses similar to those discussed in any material on the Website.

The content of such reports, analysis and material have not been prepared in accordance with the legal requirements designed to promote the independence of investment research and must therefore be viewed by the reader as marketing information.

3. Past Performance and Forward-Looking Statements

Past Performance or Forward-Looking scenarios based upon the reasonable beliefs of the third-party provider are not a guarantee of future performance. Actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in forward looking or past performance statements. Any references to past performance, historical returns, future projections, and statistical forecasts are no guarantee of future returns or future performance.

4. Risk Warning

Trading on financial markets carries risks. Contracts for Difference are complex instruments and carry a high level of risk since leverage can work both to the client's advantage and disadvantage. Leveraged products may not be suitable for everyone and may result in loss of a client's capital.

Before deciding to trade and acting on this material, the client needs to consider whether it is suitable for his particular investments, taking into account his personal objectives and circumstances, and if necessary, seek professional advice.
